

ACAT Program Database

What is it?

Command Database containing
ACAT I-IV program specific info:

Program Manager

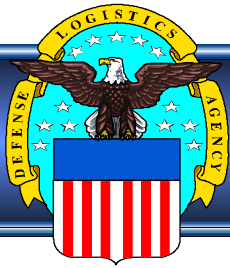

DCMC Commander

Program Integrators

Program Executive Officer

Admin Contracting Officer

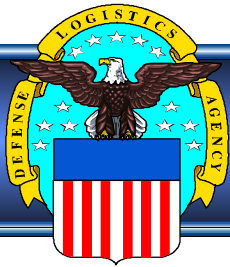

Procuring Contracting Officer

ACAT Program Database

How is it used?

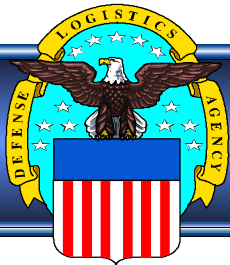

- Used on Personal Computer via “Oracle” database software.
- Screen template and switchboard provides data with simple push-button commands.
- On-screen query, data entry, and data retrieval provide instant information feedback.

ACAT Program Database

Who will use it?

- District Commanders will input Customer Satisfaction Survey.
- Program Integrators will input program specific acquisition info.
- Command personnel will use it as a management tool and to perform metrics.

ACAT Program Database

Summary

- Database primarily used for Customer Satisfaction Survey inputs.
- Database allows quick access to critical program information.
- Individuals closest to programs will update, providing the most current information possible.